By Laws No. 1

On November 28th, 2009, the Board of Directors of the ITF approved unanimously the adoption of By-Law No.1. It was then duly signed by the President and the Secretary-General.

Excerpts of By-Law No. 1 and headings of all sections are reproduced below. To obtain a copy of the complete text, please contact the National Association in your country or the Secretary-General of the ITF.

1. Scope of Application

The International Taekwon-Do Federation, ITF, and all affiliated organizations operate in accordance with the Constitution as approved at the 4th ITF General Assembly in Mar del Plata, Argentina, on November 28th, 2009.

The By-Laws, Rules and Regulations supplement the Constitution and reflect the detailed policy of the ITF. The By-Laws must be in harmony with the Constitution and, in case of conflict, the terms of the Constitution prevail.

2. Communications

English and Spanish are the official languages of the ITF, but other languages may also be used where appropriate.

Meetings of the Board of Directors and of the various committees may be held in person, by telephone or by Skype videoconferencing.

Official ITF information may be transmitted through:

- a. Information letters.
- b. Advertising, featuring in-depth articles.
- c. Official Web site.

3. Guiding Principles

- a. Practitioners of Taekwon-Do (TKD) recognize that they are forever students of our Founder, General Choi Hong Hi. The ITF and its affiliated organizations will strengthen and promote the legacy of General Choi as described in his Encyclopaedia of Taekwon-Do, notably the twenty-four patterns and his philosophy.

INTERNATIONAL
TAEKWON-DO
FEDERATION

- b. The ITF belongs to all its members and must work for its members and with its members to provide the services they need and want.
- c. The ITF and its affiliated organizations are always open to suggestions from members and encourage innovative ideas.
- d. The ITF and its affiliated organizations are and must remain free of all political influence.
- e. All decisions made by the administrators of the ITF and its affiliated organizations must be fair, impartial and justified.
- f. The ITF must play a proactive role in strategic areas such as communications and the development of ITF Taekwon-Do in its four facets as a sport and a martial art but also as a way of life and a tool for social development.
- g. The ITF and its affiliated organizations must put maximum on-going efforts into building and maintaining an efficient structure and professional operation.
- h. All qualifications and promotions within the ITF and its affiliated organizations will be attributed according to merit and in conformity with well-established criteria.
- i. The key to the future development of the ITF and its affiliated organizations is its core group of Grand Masters, Masters and Instructors.
- j. Each individual who holds an official position in the ITF or an affiliated organization or is accredited by the ITF (including instructors, umpires, seminar leaders, examiners) must be an active member. This means they must have taken the appropriate courses, have the required certificates, and have paid all fees applicable. They must not be subject to disciplinary measures and must respect and apply the regulations of the ITF.
- k. The respect of hierarchy authority is an important principle in all martial arts. All members of ITF will respect those who are their seniors in the organization, particularly their teacher. On the other hand, the seniors will treat their students and other juniors with respect and fairness.

4. Structure

4.1 The General Assembly – Voting Procedure

Upon receipt of the application approved by the NA or AA and the plaque fee, the Secretary General will issue or renew the teaching licence for the applicant.

In case an International Instructor from 4th to 9 th. degree does not pay the annual Teaching licence(plaque) fee during a certain period of time , then the waiting time for promotion will be increased for that the period of time.

6. International Activities

6.1 Teaching/Promotion/Development

An International Instructor, Master or Grand Master may teach in countries other than his home country only with the approval of the Chair of the Technical & Instruction Committee.

A seminar leader may present seminars in countries other than his home country if he has been invited by the NA or AA of that country and if the Chair of the Technical & Instruction Committee has given approval.

An examiner may grade candidates in countries other than his home country if he has been invited by the NA or AA of that country and if the Chair of the Masters Promotion Committee has given approval.

Anyone who wishes to develop ITF Taekwon-Do in regions not yet served by ITF must present his project to the Chair of the Development Committee. The project must then be accepted by the NA or AA responsible for that region if any. The ITF Board of Directors makes the final decision.

6.2 International Activity Participation.

Any member participating in an International ITF event is fully responsible for his own insurance regarding injury, trauma and/or fatal accident. The ITF is only the promoter of those events and cannot be held responsible for any injury at any level.

To participate in activities of other organizations permission from the ITF should be requested, however in organizations with few members a cooperation might be accepted.

Any ITF member wishing to invite a Master or a Grand Master from another ITF organization must request permission of their NA/AA.

Open Taekwon-Do ITF Tournaments will be open to our ITF members ONLY. For special cases, an organiser wishing to invite participants and/or officials from another Taekwon-Do organization must request permission through the NA/AA from the ITF.

7.5 Hierarchy

7.5.1 Seniority among Members

Seniority is established according to grade or degree. If two members hold the same degree, seniority will be established according to the following rule:

- a. The date on the grade or degree certificate determines seniority.
- b. If two members hold the same grade or degree and their certificates were issued on the same date, the one who started practising Taekwon-Do earlier will be considered senior.
- c. If the above criteria are not decisive, the person with the earlier date of birth will be considered to be senior.

7.5.2 Respect & Affiliation

- a. The student owes respect, loyalty, and gratitude to his teacher at all times because of the teaching and guidance he has received. Therefore, as the student progresses to higher levels in ITF Taekwon-Do, he continues to work in affiliation with his teacher. Exceptionally, a student may reach a higher Black Belt degree than his teacher, who may have interrupted his training for some reason. Nevertheless, the student must show a special regard for that former teacher.
- b. Income from the operations of an ITF accredited school, such as examination fees, might be divided between the Master and the instructors according to agreement.

7.5.3 Arbitration

Sometimes, particular circumstances make it difficult for a student and his teacher to continue working in harmony. The student may request permission from the NA or AA to change to another teacher.

11. Administration for Doping Control

11.1 Acknowledgement of Anti-Doping Rules

All participants in International Taekwon-Do competitions will confirm that they are aware of the ITF Anti-Doping Rules. The participants will therefore sign an applicable document to acknowledge their awareness of the rules.

Participants will only receive their accreditation card after they have provided confirmation of their acknowledgement.

11.2 Guidelines for Doping Control arrangements

The Organisers will appoint a person in charge of the arrangements for the Doping Control at the Championship, preferably the Doping Control Officer of the National Association. He or she will closely cooperate with the ITF Doping Control Officer.

Issues to be coordinated with the NADO before the event:

- a. The staff of the NADO, in charge of taking the samples, should be male and female to ensure that they can take samples from male and female competitors.
- b. Ensure that the NADO staff is available not later than 12.00 hours on the day of competition.
- c. Ensure that enough persons are available to accompany the competitors after they have been selected until the samples have been taken.
- d. Ensure that the staff of the NADO brings the required forms and containers for the samples.
- e. Ensure that the staff of the NADO is aware that a competitor can attend the Medal Ceremony in case his or her team is involved in the ceremony.
